

Several standard lists of "evidenced based programs" are available on the internet via SAMHSA, and other web sites.

Treatment, one list is <http://www.nrepp.samhsa.gov/>

Prevention,

- Find Youth Info www.findyouthinfo.gov
- Blueprints <http://www.colorado.edu/cspv/blueprints/>
- Comparison Matrix for Science-Based Prevention Programs

<http://www.education.ne.gov/federalprograms/pdf/CSAPComparisonMatrix.pdf>

Communities That Care Tested, Effective Programs

<http://www.sdr.org/ctcresource/Prevention%20Strategies%20Guide/testedprograms.pdf>

- American Foundation for Suicide Prevention <http://www.sprc.org/bpr>

Collaborative for Academic, Social, and Emotional Learning

<http://casel.org/publications/safe-and-sound-an-educational-leaders-guide-to-evidence-based-sel-programs/>

Justice.

NADCP.org

Basic Grant writing

Read and Follow instructions

Say what you mean in specific terms

Avoid redundancy

Conserve words

Catch the attention 1st.

Clearly respond to questions asked.

More grant writing basics at the following web site

<https://owl.english.purdue.edu/owl/resource/981/1/>